

The Pink Jacket Ladies Invite You To Our Most Spectacular Clay Aiken Event Ever!

Clay Aiken-Tried and True CD Release Party

Monday, May 31, 2010

Cost Per Attendee is $55.00.

We accept,
checks, cash,
Pay Pal and credit cards by special arrangement.

A block of rooms will be available for out-of-townners and those who would rather enjoy the hotel's amenities at their leisure. Information on other nearby facilities and rates will follow.

We are hoping that our New York, Pennsylvania and Connecticut neighbors will join us, as well as those from all parts of the country. Most of you have attended concerts at the Count Basie Theater which is located near the site. The Jersey Shore is gorgeous at this time of year and the hotel is only a few minutes ride to the famed NJ beaches.

Join us at 7:30 PM for a fabulous 4-course sit-down dinner at the historic and elegant Molly Pitcher Inn in Red Bank, NJ with magnificent views of the Navesink River. Menu will be available at a later date when all decisions have been made.

Engage in fun games and activities, Clack viewing, raffles and door prizes until 11:00 PM when we will reassemble at the legendary Jack's Music Shoppe (home store of NJ legends Bruce Springsteen and Bon Jovi with historic memorabilia on display) for our first full listening party of Clay's new CD, other surprises and purchasing at midnight.

All profits to go to National Inclusion Project in honor of "Clay Aiken-Tried and True" release on June 1, 2010.
